genetic disorder

Grayson is an adorable 4-year-old who enjoys music, dancing, and any sport with a ball. His diagnosis puts him at high risk of frequent severe infections, and he has to be protected from day-to-day exposures to illness. But Grayson loves horses—he calls them “yee-haws”—and dreamed of going horseback riding. He wished to be a cowboy.

His wish brought him to southern Alberta and Anchor D Guiding & Outfitting where his family enjoyed riding, roping and wildlife sightings. Best of all, Grayson set his condition aside and became the cowboy he'd always dreamed of. "We are so excited about our western adventure," said Grayson's mom. "Thank you for everything!"

The Power of One Wish

On November 29, 2019 we're once again kicking off our Calendar of Wishes campaign. You're invited to join us at 11am at Abbey Glen Park (101 St. and Jasper Ave) as we unveil this year's larger-than-life advent calendar.

Every day through the month of December, a door will open, revealing a wish that was granted this past year. This whimsical installation highlights our incredible wish kids while raising funds for all the wishes
